

These are slightly smaller than the ones that I used but should be easier for smaller hands

These are the speech
bubbles.

In our story they are:
"Your sins are forgiven"
and
"Get up and walk"

These are the faces.

In our story,
'The hole in the roof', there
was one who
was puzzled;
the other was
angry.

You can draw other faces
on the back
